POPUP STORE CONCEPT

OMERA BIKE

Popup Store

A 4-8 week neighborhood bike shop + coffee bar on Grunerlokka, Oslo

Markveien / Thorvald Meyers gate area

May - June 2026

$999

01

THE IDEA

A 4-8 week popup on Grunerlokka that sells and showcases the Omera city fixie at $999, doubles as a neighborhood coffee spot, and builds brand awareness through the space itself.

SELL

Showcase and sell the Omera City Fixie + Syla Light directly to riders

GATHER

A neighborhood coffee spot that drives foot traffic and dwell time

BRAND

The curated space itself becomes shareable on social media

Grunerlokka, Oslo

02

THE SPACE

Ground-floor corner unit with big street-facing windows, approximately 50-80 sqm. Grunerlokka has popup-ready spaces on Markveien (from ~$31/day) with excellent foot traffic near Birkelunden.

WALLS	Exposed brick + white-painted plaster; keep raw where possible
FURNITURE	Baltic birch plywood: shelves, counters, bike stands, coffee bar
FLOOR	Existing concrete or wood; worn oriental rug in lounge zone
CEILING	Exposed pipes, conduit, concrete or wood beams visible
LIGHTING	Warm 2700K track spots on bikes; Edison pendants over coffee bar

Interior reference: brick, plywood, warm light

03

ZONE LAYOUT

- WINDOW DISPLAY — Hero bike, OMERA decal
- SHOWROOM ~40% — Bikes, shelf wall, accessories
- COFFEE BAR ~25% — Espresso, chalkboard, stools
- LOUNGE ~20% — Leather sofas, cycling books
- CHECKOUT ~15% — iPad POS, branded merch

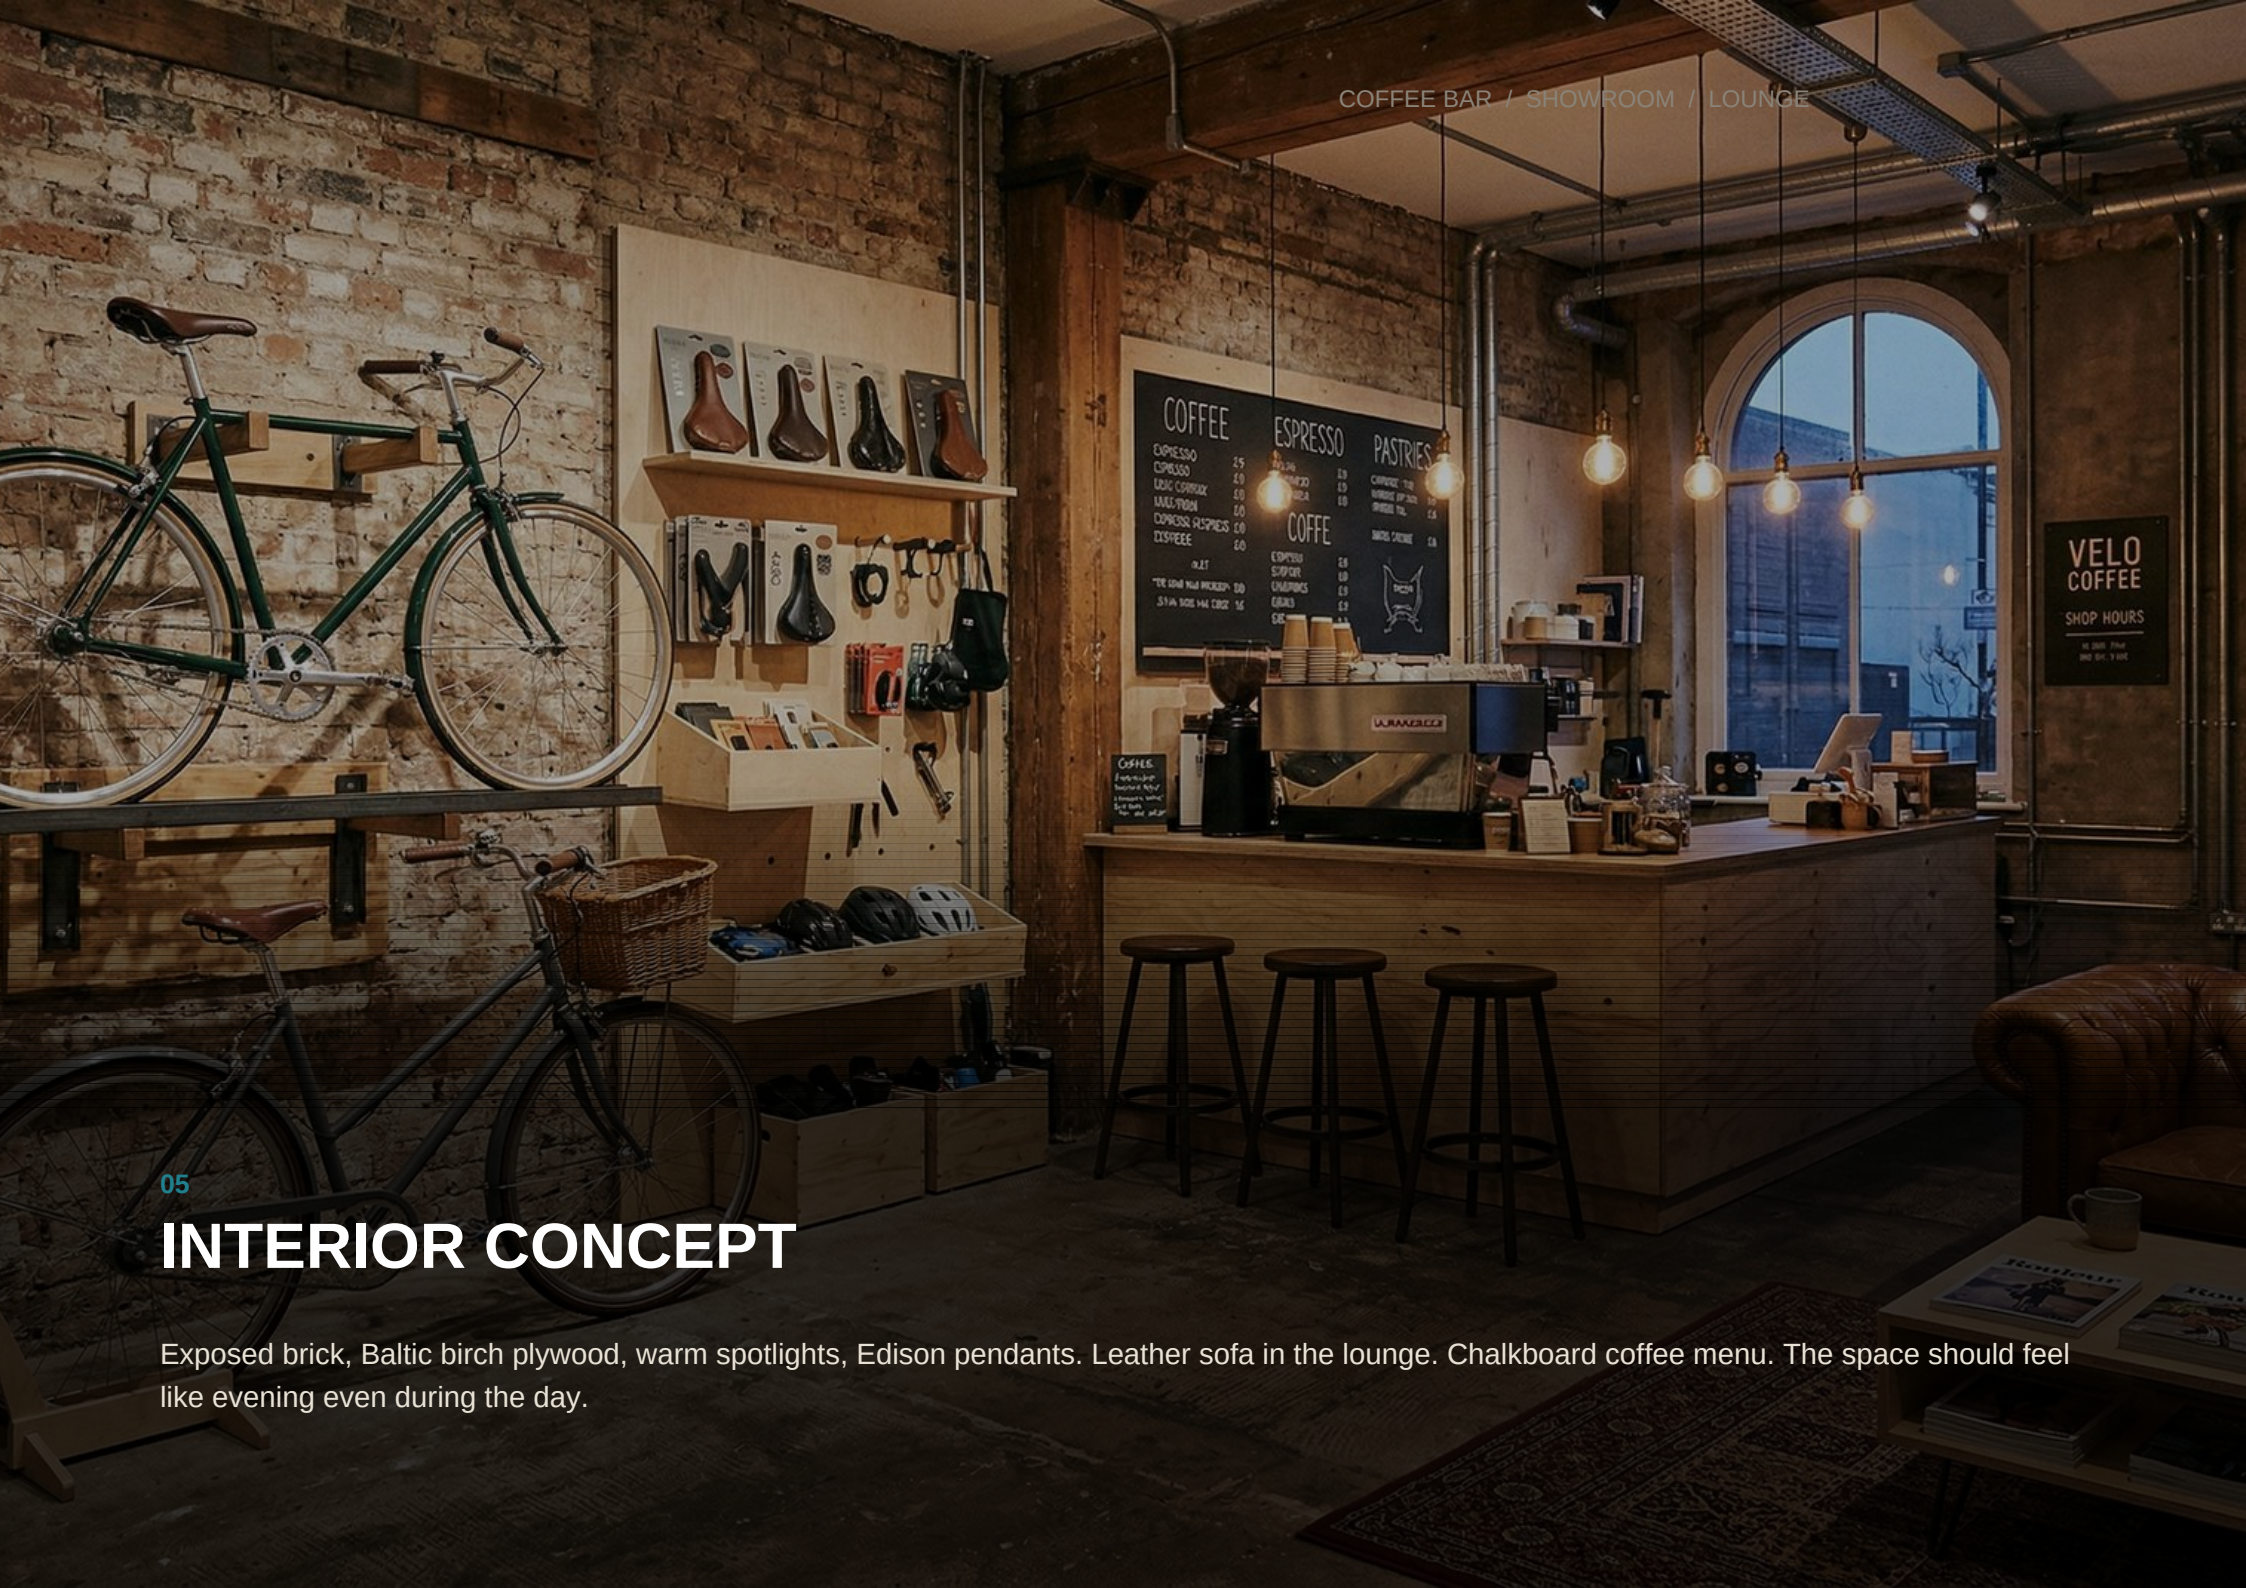
04

WINDOW DISPLAY

- One Omera bike on a plywood pedestal, spotlit
- Minimal price card: "Omera — $999"
- Large OMERA logo vinyl decal on inside of glass
- White or matte black, readable from across the street
- Inspired by Bike ID Vienna window approach

SHOWROOM FLOOR

- Wall-mounted bike on plywood/steel bracket
- Floor stand bike riders can touch and test
- Fully built display: Brooks saddle, Nitto stem, gumwall tires
- Plywood shelf wall with saddles and accessories
- Focused spotlights on each bike, dim ambient



05

INTERIOR CONCEPT

Exposed brick, Baltic birch plywood, warm spotlights, Edison pendants. Leather sofa in the lounge. Chalkboard coffee menu. The space should feel like evening even during the day.

06

COFFEE BAR & LOUNGE

COFFEE BAR (~25% of space)

Plywood counter with pro espresso machine

La Marzocco Linea Mini or similar

Chalkboard menu: filter, espresso, flat white

A few stools at the counter

Good coffee = dwell time + word of mouth

OMERA COFFEE

Espresso	$4
Filter	$4
Flat White	$5
Pastry	$3

LOUNGE CORNER (~20% of space)

Worn leather sofas (60s-80s Scandinavian)

Brown/cognac leather, patina encouraged

Low plywood coffee table on castors

Cycling books and magazines

Where people sit, talk, and decide to buy

LIGHTING DESIGN

TRACK SPOTS	Warm 2700K, focused on each bike and parts wall — bikes glow, rest falls into shadow
PENDANTS	Edison-style or simple globe, hung low over coffee bar and lounge
AMBIENCE	No overhead fluorescents — natural light from big windows balances the moody interior

07

OMERA CITY FIXIE

$999

Steel. City. Yours.

MERCHANDISING STRATEGY

Syla is the natural upsell at POS. Target 60-70% attachment rate. "Add the Syla set — they bolt on permanently, match the steel, never get stolen."

BRANDING IN THE SPACE

WINDOW DECAL

Large "OMERA" wordmark, clean sans-serif or custom type, vinyl-cut, applied to inside of main window. Visible from across the street.

WALL LOGO

One prominent Omera logo on the white wall behind checkout or above lounge sofa — painted, vinyl, or matte-black aluminum cutout.

CHALKBOARD

Hand-lettered with coffee prices and a line like "Omera Bike — $999 — Steel. City. Yours."

PRICE TAGS

Minimal printed cards on thick uncoated stock, one per bike.

SYLA DISPLAY CARD

"Syla — $79 — Steel. Anti-theft. Yours to keep." Small card on plywood shelf at eye level near checkout.

POPUP LOGISTICS

1. DURATION
   4-8 weeks, late spring / early summer (May-June) when Oslo cycling season peaks

2. SPACE RENTAL
   Grunerlokka popup spaces run roughly $30-150/day depending on size and location

3. STAFF
   1 barista who also handles sales (cycling-literate), plus owner or second person on weekends

4. INVENTORY
   Start with 10-15 bikes in mixed sizes; restock as needed. Syla lights: 20-30 sets.

5. COFFEE SETUP
   Rent or borrow a 2-group machine; budget ~$500-1,000/month for beans, milk, cups

WHY IT WORKS ON LOKKA

Grunerlokka is Oslo's hub for independent retail, vintage culture, and specialty coffee — exactly the audience for a $999 neo-retro steel fixie. The popup format creates urgency ("limited time, limited stock"), the coffee bar creates dwell time and repeat visits, and the curated interior makes the space itself shareable on social media.
